Moisture

Vitamin C, which is important for beautiful skin, is easy to oxidize and hard to be absorbed, however Vitamin C derivative makes easier for Vitamin C to penetrate in the skin. Vitamin C derivative prevents the production of melanin, which causes stains and dullness, and helps to improve pigmentation.

Ingredients for MEDI SHOT

Wrinkle prevention & Whitening Niacinamide

Natural turnover promoter Rosemary Extract

MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN Group's unique approach to prepare skin that is easy to exert effects Rosemary extract combination (moisturizing)
MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN uses rosemary extract to increase the active enzymes which involved in exfoliation of the stratum corneum and promote the proliferation of epidermal keratinocytes. Therefore, it may gradually reduce the old stratum corneum without disturbing the balance of epidermal cells and reduce the feeling of thickness and dullness of the skin.

History of MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN

1885

"BIGANSUI Acne Lotion," created by Masajiyo Momotani for his wife who suffered from acne, was released.

MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN was established in Kokawa (Wakayama Prefecture) by Masajiyo.

"BIGANSUI Beauty Lotion" was launched.

1913

A cosmetics testing lab was established ahead of the development of the industry.

"BIGAN Soap" was released in alliance with UK-based Lever Brothers, Inc. (the predecessor to the current Unilever).

1914

The Company had the honor of supplying cosmetics products to the Japanese Imperial family.

1918

Suifu Kishimoto, one of Japan's most renowned Senryu (satirical haiku) poets, joined the Company's advertising department. (satirical haiku) poets, joins joined the Company's advertising department.

1927

Masajiyo Momotani was awarded the Legion d'Honneur by the French Government for his significant contribution to promoting the cosmetics industry.

1928

Masajiyo Momotani was awarded the Medal with Green Ribbon and the Medal with Dark Blue Ribbon by the Japanese government for his contribution to the cosmetics industry and society at large.

1922

The Company's research laboratory, factory and sales office were relocated to Osaka, which served as the headquarters.

1932

Masayoshi Ohira (later Prime Minister of Japan) joined MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN.

"MEISHOKU Cleansing Cream" was launched, marking the start of the MEISHOKU Brand.

Masajiyo Momotani, the founder of MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN, was born in a family that operated a pharmacy named "Masakiya," which had served the Kishu Tokugawa clan of the Kishu region (present-day Wakayama Prefecture) since the Keicho Period (1615–1624). He engaged in drug development under the guidance of Dr. Jun Matsumoto and other authorities in medicine. At the age of 23, Masajiyo became a disciple of Dr. Ikujiro Sakurai of Tokyo Imperial University (currently the University of Tokyo) and created "BIGANSUI Acne Lotion" by employing a Western medicine formula, a trailblazing effort in those days. This marked the starting point of MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN as a cosmetics manufacturer.

1936

"MEISHOKU Astrigent Lotion", featuring a buffer effect, was launched. (Later its process was granted a patent.)

1959

Actresses Kyoko Kagawa and Ruriko Asaoka are used for advertising for women's cosmetics. For men's cosmetics, baseball player Shigeo Nagashima, actor Yujiro Ishihara, and professional wrestler Rikidozan were used.

1953

Ito Kinuko, Miss Universe Japan and known as a beauty with a well-balanced figure, was used for the Company's advertising.

1962

As an exclusive agency in Japan, the Company concluded a technology/manufacturing tie-up with 4711, a world-renowned German company for Eau de Cologne.

1963

"Jeunesse Enzyme Lotion" (medicated), patented in France and Japan, was launched.

1964

The placenta-essence skin care product "Tarvena Cream" was launched with technological alliance with German pharmaceutical company H.C. Starck.

1976

Actress Sayuri Yoshinaga was used for advertising of the MEISHOKU Gold Series as its image model.

1993

Shifted to group management by newly establishing three companies depending on the type of distribution channels.

1996

Seiichiro Momotani (current President) became Representative Director and President of MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN.

Okayama Factory was constructed.

2005

An aesthetic salon opened.

2019

"BIGANSUI Acne Lotion" was certified A Chemical Heritage Authorized by The Chemical Society of Japan.

2021

"HAPPINESS BEAUTE", SDGs products with HALAL Certification, was launched.

2016

The headquarters was relocated to Chuo-ku from Minato-ku in Osaka. (A new head office building was constructed.)

Momotani Cosmetics Research Laboratory

Okayama Factory

2018

MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN's products were displayed in the special exhibition "A Thousand Wonders of Japanese Technology" held in celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Meiji Period. (Products displayed were BIGANSUI Acne Lotion, a medicine for fever, MEISHOKU Cleansing Cream, and MEISHOKU Astrigent Lotion.)

MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN STORY

The origin of MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN

Masajiro Momotani the founder of the MOMOTANI JUNTENKAN, was born in the medicinal merchant "Masakiya" who has been serving the Tokugawa dynasty of the Kishu region (present-day Wakayama Prefecture) since the Keicho Period (1615–1624). In 1885, Masajiro Momotani invented "Bigansui" lotion for his lovely wife suffering from acne. Later on, it became popular by word of mouth in all over the Japan and created a precedent for the cosmetics business. In the long history, it is trusted, proud of its achievements, and has established an unshakable solid bond with its customers for a long time. Whether it is now or in the future, we will continue to present products with reliable quality for you.
